Join the exciting new reading challenge at Killay Library

Killay Library is currently running an exciting new reading challenge called Book Trumps where children can collect 30 fantastic playing cards by just reading books. The cards are divided into 6 great sets and all of the cards can be used to play a game of Book Trumps. There is a Myths and Legends set, a Sport set, a Sci-fi set, a Magic set, a Superheroes set and a special Horror set for some of the older readers. To collect the first set, a child only needs to read 5 books. The cards also support reader development as the back of each card recommends different authors based on the genre of the set.

Book Trumps is supported by all of the local Primary Schools and celebrities Rob Brydon and Michael Sheen.

The challenge will run until July 1st 2011 and every child who manages to collect all six sets by that date will be entered into a prize draw to win £25 worth of gift vouchers.
